DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in-

(1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

2. Claims 6, 11, and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Demartimes et al. (US 20030038788 A1 pub 2/27/2003).

With regard to claim 6 Demartimes et al. teaches a method for displaying information comprising displaying information in a display screen region of a hand held device in an area identified by permanent printing (figure 1a see horizontal line between item 105 and item 104 “display handwriting input area”) wherein said information is clock display information (figure 1a see lower right corner “1:39 PM”).

Art Unit: 2675

With regard to claim 11 Demartimes et al. was shown in claim 6 above to read on most of the limitations of claim 11 and with regard to the additional feature, "wherein said information is an alert status message on said display screen region", the time reads on this as alerting the user as to what time it is.

With regard to claim 13 Demartimes et al. was shown in claim 6 above to read on most of the limitations of claim 13 and with regard to the additional feature "receiving a short message and displaying said short message on said display screen region" Demartimes et al. teaches in figure 1a the short message "happy" on screen.

3. Claims 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Reber et al. (6,418,325).

With regard to claim 12 Reber et al. teaches a method for displaying information comprising displaying information in a display screen region of a hand held device in an area identified by permanent printing (figure 2, items 26 and 30), wherein said information is the dialog of a telephone call on said display screen region (figure 2, item 72).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 4, 5, 7, 19-22 and 24-27 are allowed.
